DIED FROM INJURIES AT FOOTBALL. NECK INJURED IN A SCRIMMAGE IN BOSTON-PROBABLY WILL NOT AFFECT THE GAME AT HARVARD.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 3 (Special).-Robert Coveney, seventeen years old, son of the late J. W. Coveney, former postmaster of Boston, has died at the City Hospital from injuries received while playing football on Franklin Field Saturday afternoon, in a game between the Hartfords, repre-senting the neighborhood about Sargent-st., Roxbury, Coveney's home, and the Springfields, who came from the West End.

Coveney injured his neck in a tackle. An operation was performed for the purpose of relieving the pressure, but the result was not what was hoped for, and all that could be done was to make the patient as comfortable as possible. The death has cast a distinct cloud upon football smong the younger set in Cambridge. It is not likely, however, that this death will affect Harvard

Captain B. H. Dibblee said in an interview: "The men who get hurt are those who do not know the game in all its detail. They do not know how to take care of themselves in a scrimmage. I think that Coveney's death cannot affect the general status of the sport."

Trainer MacMasters, of the Harvard eleven, and Cameron Forbes, head coach, agreed with Captain Dibblee. Captain B. H. Dibblee said in an interview: "The

PRACTICE AT HARVARD. HOT WEATHER INTERFERES WITH THE REGULAR

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 3.-On account of the oppressive weather, the hard work of the Harvard football squad to-day was contracted into a few minutes' scrimmage practice at dusk. The line-up was as follows: Gray, left end; Burkett, left tackle; Beal, left guard; T. Sargent, C. P. Burden, right guard; Lawrence, right tackle; Lewis, right end; Bailey, quarterback; Dibblee, left halfback; E. Kendall, right halfback; Warren, fullback.

The feature of the afternoon's work was the rushing and tackling of Dibblee. Quarterback rushing and tackling of Dibblee. Quarterback Bailey showed up well to-day, and did some good punting behind poor protection afforded by the Varsity rush line.

The first eleven were frequently penalized for off-side play, which is one of its most frequent and costly faults. W. D. Hennen and P. M. Jaffray, '99, joined the squad to-day as candidates for heavy-weight places. Jaffray has hitherto played guard, but to-day he was coached by W. H. Lewis in centre play. Trainor, tackle, and Reed, fullback, who have been laid off, rejoined the squad to-day.

HARD WORK AT CORNELL. PREPARATIONS FOR THE GAME WITH CARLISLE

ON SATURDAY.

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 3 .- Cornell's coaches started in this afternoon to get the team in shape for the game with the Carlisle Indians here next Saturday. The 'Varsity again practised on the defence and one or two new plays were introduced. Signal work received much attention and interference was patched up. In the lineup the 'Varsity was pushed by the scrubs from the middle of the field to its tenward line, but here the new defence introduced worked better and the rushes of the college eleven were finally stopped.

Alexander, left tackle, did not line up, as a re

Alexander, left tackle, did not line up, as a result of an injured arm. Cross is also nursing an injury, and will do well if he takes his position at right end in Saturday's game. Starbuck was out for the first time in over a week, and played on the scrub line. Sielcher is doing better at fullback for the regulars, and will probably play against the Indians unless Starbuck fully recovers. Coach Warner said to-night that Cornell would not be in her strongest shape this week, owing to loss of men on account of injuries. Saturday's game is expected to be close, and the result by some is considered doubtful.

Correspondence was closed yesterday for the game of football of the clevens of the Duquesne Athletic Club, of Pittsburg, at Berkeley Oval, on October 15. W. C. Temple, of the Duquesne Club, and Temple Cup fame, is the chief worker in the Pittsburg aggregation, and he has gathered together one of the strongest all-star college elevens that has ever represented an athletic club. The Knickerbocker team is training every night under Harry Cornish.

BALL-PLAYER TRIES TO KILL HIS WIFE. Camden, N. J., Oct. 3.-William Eagan, a baseball-player, who has at different periods in the last Syracuse, Pittsburg and other professional clubs, to-day tried to kill his wife and had also planned to kill himself. This morning, while in a barbershop, he displayed a revolver, and said he was going home to kill his wife and then blow his brains out. He left the shop, and word was sent to police headquarters. Two policemen hurried to Eagan's home, and arrived in time to meet the wife running out, pursued by her rum-crazed hushand firing his revolver. He had fired three shots, none of which had taken effect. The policemen knocked the revolver from the man's hand, overpowered him and took him to jail. Eagan was discharged from the Pittsburg club a few months ago for drinking. Syracuse, Pittsburg and other professional clubs

P. F. WARNER'S TEAM SCORES A WELL-EARNED VICTORY AGAINST PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3 (Special).—The string of vic-tories of P. F. Warner's English cricket team, which, it was expected, would be broken here to-day, remains intact. The concluding game of the tour, with the exception of one more match in Chicago, ended to-day on the Germantown Cricket Chicago, ended to-day on the terminate of the Club grounds, and the Englishmen, by a splendid exhibition of batting, placed another victory to their credit by four wickets.

It was a game struggle to the end, and, appreciating the fact that the visitors were fighting an uphill battle, the spectators applauded them most impartially. The hero of the day was V. T. Hill. Somerset left-hander, who kept up his wickets in somerset lett-hander, who kept up has been splended style, and was still undisposed of with 41 to his credit, when the game came to an end. Costumes-A Concensus

OUR audience of yesterday was very large and obviously candid in comment. Unanimous approval from such an audience is not easily earned. We are the more gratified that our exposition received it.

Personal tastes exemplify themselves oddly in such a showing and in such company as visited it yesterday. Those who favored a regal dinner gown of Worth with the meres glance, bubbled enthusiasm over some production of Corne, exquisite in its apparent simplicity. And those who passed the Cornes and Porets without comment, exhausted their adjectives on the Worths and Rouffs. But the concensus of opinion is unanimous, and unanimously favorable.

The showing of Lingerie, Children's Wear, Matinees, Tea Gowns and Silk Waiste should not be submerged by the more imposing showing of Costumes. The former will be found in the Little French Store, and near it, second floor, Fourth Avenue and Tenth

The real founda-Attractive tion of a China-Offerings ware Store is the in Fine Chinaware dinner ware. There's an interesting story to tell of that class of goods to-day. A belated shipment of particularly beautiful French China Dinner Ware has just come in. It was intended for the September sale. It has September pricemarks,—that means a saving of more than a third on new, fine, very desirable goods, 101 pieces to a set, all prettily decorated in the latest floral designs, and heavily gilded. They are $32.50. Some other French china sets in very handsome de rations are priced at $22.50 to $40-prices that are fully 30 per cent. less than ruling prices.

Then, in less expensive goods, you may choose an English porcelain set of 100 pieces, nicely decorated, at only $5; and in American porcelain, at $8, $10 and $12. Some of the more elaborate sorts run as high as $350. Open stock patterns are all in full supply.

Silks;—Evening and Other Sorts

The silk man calls these "night-blooming silks," as a delicate tribute to their flower-like beauty and the fact that they are for evening wear. This is a lot that has been hustled away from the But these handsome, reliable, inexpensive regular stock because it has been a little mussed from much showing. Nothing to hurt anything but their prices.

price. That's the Custom Talloring story of the great success of this Merchant Tailoring business of ours. It's only a yearling-the venture dates September 20 of last year-but its growth has been something more than satisfactory. It is offerings such as this that have brought us many loyal friends: The new fancy cheviots and worsteds in single breasted sack suits to order-and to fit, or you don't take the suit-at $25 and $28. We'll be pleased with a comparison of these figures with those of other high-class custom tailors.
